FOREWORD

We are proud of our democracy not only because we are the only country in this part of the world, which has had a democracy ever since our independence except for a short aberration during the emergency rule, but also because our elections are orderly and transfers of power have been smooth. The world at large recognises that democracy has come to stay in India and it does not refer to Indian democracy as an experiment anymore. Many new democracies look up to India for electoral reforms, assistance for conduct of elections or observance of elections. Egypt is the most recent example of such interest.

Our democratic journey, however, has not been without hazards. Use of money power, and violence, including booth capturing and corrupt practices have been there throughout, though they have not affected the outcome in a significant way. A more recent problem is the changing profile of people's representatives in every democratic forum. This is inevitable as these bodies are microcosms of the societies they represent and we get the leaders we deserve as a people. Universal adult suffrage without limitations of education or income inevitably results in a wide variety of people finding their way to the legislative bodies. But, as long as they function within the framework of the constitution as responsible representatives of the people, there is no reason for concern.

There is greater transparency today about the profile of our political representatives than before on account of the institutionalisation of declaration of assets and other information. A careful analysis of these declarations can be an extremely useful tool to guide the voters to correct the mistakes of the past and to understand their candidates. The Election Watch of Kerala and the Association of Democratic Reforms have precisely done that in the Report, 'Analysis of Criminal and Financial Details of Candidates and MLAs from Kerala Based on 2011 Assembly Elections.' The sources are impeccable as they are the affidavits submitted by the individuals themselves and the analysts have done their work in good faith, making the Report objective and factual. I commend them for their dedication and meticulous work.

The report speaks for itself on pending criminal cases, assets and liabilities, education levels, gender representation, age and increase in assets from one election to another. The trends are disturbing in these areas and call into question the ability of the representatives to perform their responsibilities effectively and honestly. If a large number of our representatives have criminal cases pending, if their sources of income are vague, if the education levels are falling, if the gender balance is absent or their increase in assets is alarming, the voters will not feel comfortable.

Data in this Kit is presented in good faith, with an intention to inform voters. Candidates' affidavit with nomination papers is the source of this analysis. www.adrindia.org, <http://www.myneta.info>, adr@adrindia.org, <http://www.twitter.com/adrspeaks>, http://www.facebook.com/adr\_new

Statistics may not be an accurate indicator in making value judgments, but there is enough in this Report to cause concern. The media has already highlighted some of these facts. The Report will have fulfilled its purpose if the voters reach appropriate conclusions on the data presented to them and ensure that they elect people with the right profiles in future. This will further enhance the value of our democracy and the reputation of our legislative bodies.

Background on Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR)

and National Election Watch (NEW)

About ADR & NEW

Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR) was established in 1999 by group of professors from Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Ahmedabad. In 1999, a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) was filed by them with Delhi High Court asking the disclosure of criminal, financial and educational background of the candidates contesting elections. Based on this, the Supreme Court in 2002 and subsequently in 2003, made it mandatory for all candidates contesting elections to disclose Criminal, Financial and educational background prior to the polls by filing an affidavit with Election Commission.

The first election watch was conducted by ADR in 2002 for Gujrat Assembly Elections whereby detailed analysis of the backgrounds of candidates contesting elections was provided to the electorate in order to help the electorate make an informed choice during polls. Since then ADR has conducted Election Watches for almost all state and parliament elections in collaboration with the National Election Watch. It conducts multiple projects aimed at increasing transparency and accountability in the political and electoral system of the country.

Our Achievements

- ADR won the NASSCOM award for ICT led Innovation by Multi-stakeholder Partnerships. This award was for the Election Watch software of ADR and Webrosoft.
- ADR won two milestone judgments on disclosure of candidate's criminal and financial records from the Supreme Court in May 2002 and March 2003 respectively. Since then, 1200 NGOs from all over the country are supporting ADR and ADR in partnership with its partners has organized Citizen Election Watch for all major elections and disclosed candidate's background information to the media and the public.
- The Election Commission has completed a massive exercise based on the Gujarat Election Watch report to verify information filed by candidates in the nomination papers and affidavits, and has started proceedings against candidates with false declarations.
- A Bill on Electoral Expenses was passed in September 2003. The EC has asked candidates to file a statement of expenses in every three days during the campaign. This information is made available to citizens on request to Returning Officers, District Election Officers and the CEOs.
- Civil Society non-partisan Election Watches are springing up in different states. In the Lok Sabha 2004 Elections, 19 States and 5 Union Territories carried out Election Watches. In the Lok Sabha 2009 elections, Election Watches were held in all states and union territories in the country.

- Bihar Election Watch in October-November 2005 resulted in intense pressure on the Chief Minister designate due to the extensive media coverage of candidate's background. As a result, for the first time, Bihar has a Council of Ministers without any known criminal record.
- The Election Commission inaugurated Civil Society led National Conferences on Electoral Reforms in Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Patna, Lucknow, Mumbai, Bhopal and Chennai. These Conferences were action oriented and resulted in successful Election Watch campaigns.
- The EC issued several very significant orders in the last two years relating to candidate disclosure, ensuring those affidavits are complete, taking action against false affidavits based on complaints, and disclosing electoral expenses.
- In April 2008, ADR obtained a landmark ruling from the Central Information Commission (CIC) saying that Income Tax Returns of Political Parties would now be available in the public domain along with the assessment orders.
- In the Karnataka Assembly Elections, 2008, there was a reduction in the number of candidates with serious offenses put up by parties. There were 93 such cases against candidates in the 2008 elections, down from 217 in the 2004 assembly elections.
- Overall, the percentage of candidates with pending criminal cases came down from 20% to 14% in the assembly elections held in the country in 2008 for the states of Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, NCT of Delhi and Mizoram.
- A large number of candidates with serious pending cases that contested Lok Sabha 2009 elections like Pappu Yadav, Atiq Ahmed, Mukhtar Ansari, Akhilesh Singh, etc. lost.
- The number of total serious IPC sections against MPs decrease from 296 in Lok Sabha 2004 to 274 in Lok Sabha 2009.
- On Jan 25, 2010 both the Congress Chief Ms Sonia Gandhi and leader of opposition in Lok Sabha Ms Sushma Swaraj of BJP made public statements calling for a consensus on barring candidates with criminal backgrounds from contesting elections.
- On Feb 3, 2010 Prime Minister Manmohan Singh asked his Cabinet colleagues to disclose details of their assets and liabilities and refrain from dealing with the government on immovable property.
- Because of an RTI application that ADR has been following up with the CIC for nearly the past 2 years, the contribution reports of major political parties have been made public. Added to this is the fact that the Election Commission has taken proactive steps towards bringing in some level of accountability in the functioning of the political parties by getting the ICAI to develop reporting formats for political parties
- In May, 2010, the Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, Ms. Mayawati had announced the expulsion of about 500 party leaders with criminal past.
- In January 2011, the Election Commission of India entrusted the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) with the task of developing accounting format for political parties.
- Details of the movable and immovable assets of 30 Bihar ministers, including that of CM Nitish Kumar, were uploaded on the government website in January, 2011. It is seen as a step aimed at ending corruption promised by the Chief Minister himself.
